Sure, there are some larger-than-life individuals on the Chicago Bulls.
But our team also includes our non-profit foundation, CharitaBulls, and the thousands of Chicagoland children it helps.

We built the James Jordan Boys and Girls Club to give neighborhood kids a place to play and learn. And it's only one of hundreds of organizations we help through donations, appearances and programs.

Because we're not just the Bulls. We're the Chicago Bulls. And proud of it.

NBA'S 50 GREATEST PLAYERS

The NBA extended invitations to a panel of 50 experts and asked them to vote on the 50 greatest players in NBA history. Each panel member voted for 50 players in no particular order, and the 50 who received the most votes were featured in the NBA at 50. The Panel represented a wide spectrum of experts, each of whom had a unique view of NBA history. Included were team executives and coaches, veteran members of print and electronic media and some of the greatest players in NBA history.

"GOING THE DISTANCE!"

IT'S WHAT WE'RE ALL ABOUT.

Our Grossinger themeline says,
"We'll go the distance for you." Because you can always count on our famous Grossinger Deal, a tremendous selection and outstanding service. No wonder, for over sixty years, more and more people keeping going the distance for us.

'Da Bulls Ain't The Only Winners In This Town.

THE ALL - NEW DODGE INTREPID IS JUST ONE OF THE MANY FLEET FAVORITES THAT NAPLETON BUYERS WIN WITH.

NAPLETON FLEET GROUP clients have also run up some pretty impressive scores, too.

CORPORATE automotive fleet buyers who bring their game plans to Napleton know they can count on single-source deals that are handled locally, delivered nationally and priced way below the competition.

NAPLETON has been a major player in the National Automotive League for more than four decades. So call us. Find out what it's like to win in a game that's not just a spectator sport.

1996-97 SEASON SUMMARY

November [15-1]

The Bulls embarked on their quest to defend their NBA Championship with the second-best winning percentage in a month in franchise history (.938). In the first game of the 1996-97 season, Robert Parish began his NBA-best 21st season and Michael Jordan set a club record for most games started in a season opener with his 11th start, surpassing Jerry Sloan. On Nov. 2, the second game and home opener, the Bulls received their championship rings and the championship banner was unveiled prior to the Bulls' 115-86 win over the 76ers. The Bulls began the season with five straight wins, breaking the franchise's record for most consecutive wins at the start of the season set by the 1995-96 team. The streak reached 12 wins but was snapped at Utah on Nov. 23 (105-100). The Bulls won their next three games to finish their first West Coast road trip of the season at 5-1, despite losing Luc Longley to a left shoulder injury, which sidelined him for the next 22 games. In the last game of the road trip, on Nov. 30 at San Antonio, Jordan scored his 25,000th career point, becoming the second-fastest player in NBA history to accomplish the feat (Wilt Chamberlain was the first). Jordan was named the NBA Player of the Month after averaging 31.9 ppg, 4.9 rpg, 3.4 apg, 1.50 spg and 35.9 mpg.

December [12-3]

On Dec. 7, Miami handed the Bulls their first loss at home (83-80). The next day, the Bulls fell to the Raptors at the SkyDome (97-89), their third loss of the season. The back-to-back losses marked the first time that the Bulls lost both games in a back-to-back set since Feb. 8, 1995 at Portland (116-103) and Feb. 9, 1995 at Seattle (126-118 OT). Dennis Rodman was slapped with a two-game team suspension for comments made after the loss to Toronto. The Bulls rolled to eight consecutive wins, including a 129-123 overtime comeback victory over the Los Angeles Lakers on Dec. 17 after trailing by as many as 22 points. In that game, three Bulls scored 30 or more points for the first time in the club's history - Scottie Pippen (35), Toni Kukoc (31) and Michael Jordan (30). Also, Phil Jackson was named to the NBA's list of 10 greatest all-time coaches. On Christmas Day, the Bulls defeated Detroit (95-83) to extend their winning streak over the Pistons to 17 games. On the following night, the Bulls played at Atlanta and fell to the Hawks (108-105), as Christian Laettner scored 37 points. Despite the loss, the Bulls closed out December having won 10 of the last 11 games.

January [13-1]

The Bulls continued their hot streak, winning seven straight to begin the new year. The top two teams in the league met on Jan. 11, as the Bulls hosted the Houston Rockets at the United Center. The Bulls defeated the Rockets (110-86), extending their win streak to six games. On Jan. 14, Luc Longley made his return to the starting line-up after missing 22 games due to a shoulder injury and Dennis Rodman grabbed his 10,000th career rebound to lead the Bulls to a 87-82 win over the Bulls. On Jan. 15 at Minnesota, Michael Jordan attained another milestone, eclipsing Alex English (25,613 career points) for eighth place on the NBA's all-time scoring list. The next day, Rodman was suspended for 11 games by the NBA for his actions in the Minnesota game. On Jan. 19 at the Summit, the Houston Rockets extracted revenge, defeating the Bulls, 102-86. The loss was the Bulls' fifth defeat of the season and snapped a nine-game win streak. The Bulls closed out January by winning six straight games, including an 88-87 win over New York at the United Center and the first three games of their second West Coast road trip. Jordan and Scottie Pippen were named as starters for the 1997 NBA All-Star Game in Cleveland and Steve Kerr was selected to participate in the AT&T Shootout.

February [10-2]

The second West Coast road swing came to a close as the Bulls posted wins over Seattle (91-84) and Portland (88-84) before falling to the Lakers at Los Angeles (106-90), giving the team a 5-1 slate on the trip and 42-6 record at the break. During All-Star Weekend, Steve Kerr out-shot the competition en route to capturing the AT&T Shootout championship. On Sunday, Feb. 9, Michael Jordan became the first player ever to record a triple-double in an NBA All-Star Game with 14 points, 11 rebounds and 11 assists. Beginning the second half of the season, the Bulls welcomed back Dennis Rodman, who returned from an 11-game suspension on Feb. 11 vs. Charlotte. Jordan nailed a three-point buzzer beater to rob the Hornets (103-100). On Feb. 14, the Bulls avenged their loss to the Hawks with an 89-88 win at the Omni. Following that game, the Bulls defeated the Orlando Magic (110-89) and began a string of five games in which the team scored 100 or more points. In the win over the Magic, Jordan passed Alvin Robertson for third place on the NBA's all-time career steals list (2,112). On Feb. 16 vs. Denver, Scottie Pippen exploded for a career-high 47 points to lead the Bulls to a 134-123 win at the United Center. Pippen was named the NBA Player of the Week after averaging 32.3 ppg, 6.6 rpg, 2.33 spg and 38.0 mpg. The Bulls went on to win their next seven games, before falling to the Cleveland Cavaliers at Gund Arena (73-70) on Feb. 27 - a season-low 70 points for the Bulls. On Feb. 28, the Bulls defeated the Sacramento Kings (126-108) at the United Center, tying the 1982-83 Philadelphia 76ers for second place on the NBA's list of all-time best records with 50 wins.

1996-97 SEASON SUMMARY

March [12-2]

The Bulls began the month with a three-game homestand, beginning with Milwaukee on March 3. Michael Jordan scored 31 points, passing Dominique Wilkins (26,258 career points) for seventh place on the NBA's all-time scoring list. The Bulls won three straight at home before losing on March 9 at New York (97-93) to begin their East Coast road trip. Against the Knicks, Robert Parish extended his league-best number of career games played to 1,600. The Bulls got back on track with a win at Boston (117-106), as Jordan scored a game-high 32 points to pass John Havlicek (26,395 career points) for fifth place on the NBA's all-time scoring list. Following the win at Boston, the Bulls defeated the 76ers at Philadelphia (108-104), but lost their next game to the New Jersey Nets (99-98) on March 14. The Bulls rebounded from the loss and defeated Atlanta (99-79) at the United Center on March 15 and went on to win their next six games. On March 22, the Bulls defeated the Pistons (103-88) at home for their 100th win at the United Center. In the victory over the Dallas Mavericks (94-92), the Bulls lost Dennis Rodman to a medial collateral sprain of the left knee, and he would not return in the regular season. Toni Kukoc returned for the last two games of the month after missing 13 games due to plantar fasciitis of the right foot.

April [7-4]

The last month of the regular season yielded the Bulls' lowest winning percentage of the 1996-97 campaign (.636). The Bulls played four sets of back-to-back games and seven of their 11 games were against potential playoff contenders. The Bulls began April with a win over Boston at the United Center and then traveled to Washington on April 3, where they dropped their ninth game of the season (110-102). On April 6 at Orlando, Michael Jordan passed Oscar Robertson for fifth place on the NBA's all-time scoring list (26,710). In the win over the Magic (110-94), the Bulls clinched home-court advantage throughout the Eastern Conference Finals. The next night vs. Philadelphia, the Bulls clinched home-court advantage throughout the NBA Finals. The Bulls won their next five games, including a 105-103 win over the Knicks in Madison Square Garden on April 10. The Pistons then ended a string of 19 consecutive losses to the Bulls with a 108-91 victory at the Palace on April 13. The Bulls then rebounded with a home win over Toronto on April 14 (117-100), giving them a 69-11 record with two games remaining. Jordan recorded his first triple-double of the season in that game (30 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists). On April 16, the Bulls' bid to become only the second team in NBA history to win 70 games in a season and the first to accomplish the feat two consecutive years came up short with a 102-92 defeat at Miami. With one last chance to win 70 games in the regular season finale on April 19, the Bulls fell short as the New York Knicks came from behind to win 103-101 at the United Center. In April, the Bulls lost four players to injuries (Randy Brown, Toni Kukoc, Dennis Rodman and Bill Wennington) and signed Matt Stetenga and Brian Williams for the rest of the season. The Bulls finished the regular season with the best record in the NBA at 69-13, matching the 1971-72 Lakers for second place for most wins in a season.

NBA COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

On the court, Terrell Brandon has distinguished himself as one of the best point guards in the NBA. The two-time All-Star and leader of the Cavaliers is known for his quickness and ability to create scoring opportunities for himself and his teammates.

Brandon is also known as one of the true gentlemen of the game, bringing high standards of ethical behavior, fair play and integrity to the hardwood. As a result of his on-court sportsmanship, Brandon was honored

as the 1996-97 winner of the NBA

Sportsmanship

Award.

Brandon

joined Joe

Dumars, the first recipient of the award.

Brandon's award is part of a larger program, the NBA Sportsmanship

Initiative, one of several community programs implemented by the league. The initiative also includes the NBA Student-Athlete Sportsmanship Program and a public service campaign.

Players, coaches and teams support programs that positively impact their local communities, especially those programs that benefit youth. NBA players are frequently seen in public service announcements to promote awareness of social issues. They also participate in a variety of community outreach efforts.

The NBA TeamUp program, which made its debut in the 1996-97 season, encourages youth to improve their communities through volunteerism. The program includes a public service campaign, motivational visits by NBA spokesmen and players, and a youth service award.

In conjunction with

Reading Is

Fundamental,

the leading non-profit children's literacy organization in

the United States,

the NBA helps emphasize the importance of youth literacy. Each March, the NBA and its teams recognize NBA Reading Month by holding "Reading Time-Outs" and book distributions at schools, libraries and youth organizations. The NBA also produces public service announcements focusing on the fun and fundamentals of reading.

In addition, the NBA continues its support of Black History Month, CARE, the King Holiday and the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse.

CHICAGO BULLS COMMUNITY SERVICES

The Chicago Bulls take great pride in playing an active part in our community. We receive exceptional support from our fans and the city of Chicago, and the organization recognizes its responsibility to give back to the community. Our commitment to Chicago is to be actively involved in programs that improve the quality of life in the metropolitan area. Nowhere is that dedication more apparent than in the team's community relations' efforts. Our leadership role combines financial support, in-kind services, numerous community programs, and the personal involvement of our players, coaches, front office staff and entire organization. The Chicago Bulls are more than just a business - we are a partner, a neighbor and a teammate in the community.

CHARITABULLS

Since 1987, the Bulls' non-profit organization, CharitaBulls, has reached out to thousands of Chicagoans, making a difference in their lives. CharitaBulls was created as a vehicle through which the Bulls could say "thanks," and give something back to the Chicagoland community by raising funds for a variety of worthy causes. The majority of funds raised are donated to the following organizations:

JAMES JORDAN BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB

CharitaBulls is committed to creating positive educational and recreational opportunities for children. Standing true to this principle, CharitaBulls donated $4.5 million in 1994, to build a 40,000 square-foot, two-story, youth and family development center named in the memory of James Jordan, father of Bulls' Michael Jordan. The James Jordan Boys & Girls Club opened in the fall of 1996, and contains a computer center, a science lab, health care facilities, a gym, dance and game room areas, classroom facilities and more. The club is located just two blocks from the United Center on Chicago's Near West Side, and is a unit of the highly successful Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago.

CHICAGO PARK DISTRICT PROGRAMS

In 1995, CharitaBulls concluded a very successful five-year program with the Chicago Park District - the CharitaBulls Basketball Court Renovation Program. Through this program, CharitaBulls donated $1,000,000 over five years to repair and refurbish 140 damaged city basketball courts.

The Bulls continued their relationship with the Chicago Park District and, in January 1995, donated $375,000 to form the Chicago Bulls/Chicago Park District Late-Nite Basketball League. CharitaBulls has pledged $75,000 each year through 1999 to support late night programming at the parks. Currently, the program is available at 11 sites throughout Chicago parks and has attracted over 800 players from 17 to 26 years old.

ILLINOIS SPECIAL OLYMPICS STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS

The Chicago Bulls and Illinois Special Olympics expanded their long-term relationship in 1991 as CharitaBulls became a co-sponsor of the Illinois Special Olympics District and State Basketball Tournaments. CharitaBulls donates $25,000 each year to help fund eight district and two state tournaments. CharitaBulls' annual contribution helps enrich the lives of more than 2,800 special athletes in Illinois that compete in these events.

CHICAGO BULLS COMMUNITY SERVICES

CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM

CharitaBulls seeks to provide educational opportunities for Chicago's youth and has joined with the Chicago Public Library System to support the Mabel Manning Branch Library, located just two blocks from the United Center. In 1994, CharitaBulls adopted the newly-built library and contributed $50,000 to furnish its "Computer Court," a computer center that features IBM and Macintosh personal computers, printers and software for use by the library patrons.

CITY YEAR

CharitaBulls most recent undertaking is a new partnership with City Year Chicago, a national youth service organization which unites young people, ages 17 to 23, from diverse backgrounds for a demanding year of full-time community service, leadership development, and civic engagement. CharitaBulls donated $25,000 in 1997, and will contribute $30,000 in 1998, to fund City Year's Young Heroes program, a program that involves 50 middle school students from different schools in the Lawndale community. During 16 fun and lesson-filled Saturdays of direct community service and formal leadership development training, it is our hope that the Young Heroes' participants will learn the value of teamwork, tolerance and commitment.

OTHER RECIPIENTS

Other recent recipients of funds raised through CharitaBulls include: Inner City Foundation, Helping Hand Rehabilitation Center, March of Dimes, Chicago Youth Success Foundation, Robert H. Lurie Cancer Center at Northwestern University, Chicago Cares, Little City, Haymarket House, West Side Future, House of Daniel, Black on Black Love, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Whitney Young High School Deaf Program, Glenwood School for Boys, LINKS, Ronald McDonald House, Off the Street Club, Maryville Academy and more.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/PROGRAMS

CharitaBulls is primarily supported through funds raised at the following annual events:

- The Annual Tip-Off Luncheon - a preseason banquet that brings the team and fans together for an inside look at the upcoming season. Nearly 1,300 fans attend this event held each year during the first week of the NBA season.
- FestaBulls - held at the Bulls' practice facility in Deerfield, this dinner features live and silent auctions of over 120 sports' memorabilia items. More than 500 fans join Bulls' players, coaches, announcers and staff, to raises nearly $250,000 each year.
- Shoot-the-Bull 3-on-3 Classic - our citywide tournament draws thousands of basketball players and spectators each year. Held every summer in Chicago's Grant Park, the Shoot-the-Bull 3-on-3 Classic donates its proceeds to CharitaBulls and Illinois Special Olympics. The event features men's and women's competition, dunk and shooting contests, celebrity competitions and kid's clinics with Bulls' players.

50/50 RAFFLE

The 50/50 Raffle was introduced during the '96-'97 season. Raffle tickets are sold throughout the concourse before and during halftime of every home game. In the fourth quarter of each game, a lucky winner is chosen and takes home 50% of the net earnings from that evening's ticket sales, while the other 50% benefits CharitaBulls. In its first year, the 50/50 Raffle raised $250,000 for the Bulls' charity.

Funds also are raised through in-arena auctions at Fandemonium; personal scoreboard messages (birthdays/anniversaries) at Bulls' home games which are available for a $100 donation; private donations; proceeds from tours of the United Center, and the CharitaBulls Corporate Sponsor Program whereby sponsors contribute money based on the number of Bulls' dunks, free throws, blocked shots, three-point shots, points, steals, rebounds and assists made by the team.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS

STAY IN SCHOOL

The NBA's nationally acclaimed Stay In School program was created in 1989 to address the critical issue of high school dropouts. A joint effort of the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association, the Stay In School program includes several national and local elements designed to deliver the Stay In School message to students, particularly in middle school. The Bulls have an active Stay In School program on a local level that encourages students in the Chicagoland area to achieve perfect attendance and hopefully helps reduce the dropout rate. Through this program, students are able to earn certificates of achievement, tickets to Bulls' games, school visits from players and the chance to attend the Bulls' Annual Stay in School Jam that takes place each winter.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Each season the Bulls and CharitaBulls offer three $2,000 scholarships to high school seniors who plan to attend college. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic achievement, extra curricular activities and the contents of an essay. In addition, the United Center Joint Venture offers $20,000 in scholarships to Malcolm X College students each year.

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

Positive reinforcement, recognition and role models are important tools motivating students of any age. With this in mind, the Bulls annually adopt a Chicago Public School to help encourage students to set and achieve educational goals. Incentives such as tickets, autographed memorabilia, arena tours and Bulls' souvenirs are donated to kids who achieve good attendance records, grade improvements and positive attitudes.

ART CONTEST

In an effort to encourage creativity and interest in the arts, the Bulls host an art contest that allows kids to express their artistic talents. Held each spring, the contest invites students to draw or paint any scene depicting Bulls' basketball using either the Bulls' logo or the words "Chicago Bulls." Artwork from the winning entries appears in the Bulls' magazine, game program and yearbook. The contest is open to students in grades one through six in Lake, Cook and DuPage counties.

NEWSPAPER IN EDUCATION PROGRAMS

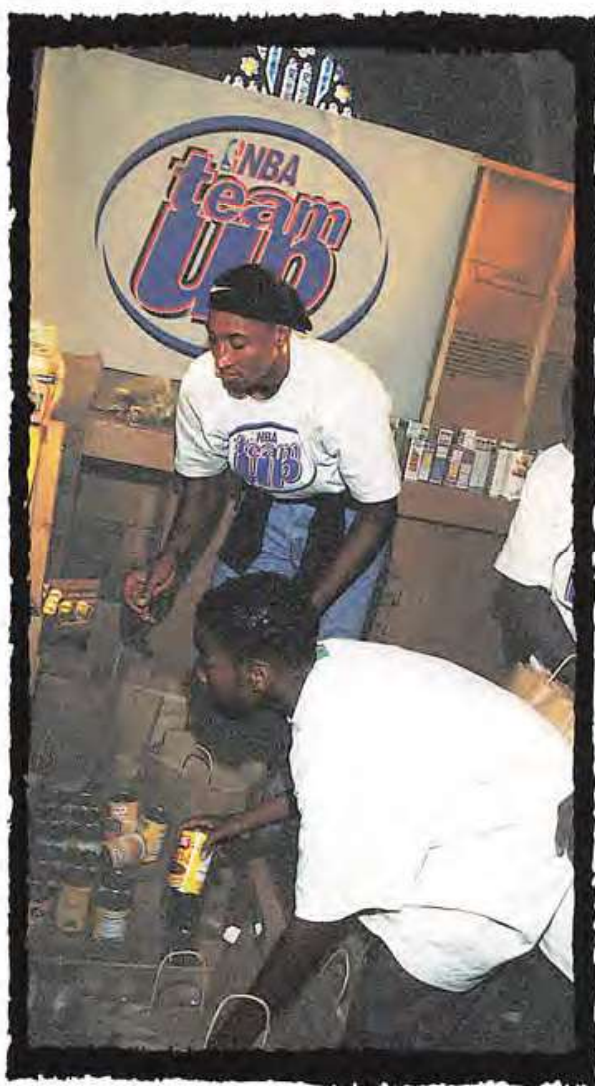

The Bulls host educational programs with both the Chicago Sun-Times ("Hit the Hoops") and the Chicago Tribune ("Believe It/Achieve It"). Through these programs, students in grades four through eight follow the Bulls through the sports pages of the two newspapers to learn various school subjects such as math skills, geography and more. Both programs are available from October through May.

TEAMUP

During the 1996-97 season, the NBA launched the NBA TeamUp program, a new community outreach initiative designed to maintain the League's long-standing commitment to youth and education. TeamUp promotes the importance of community service and recognizes young people who demonstrate a commitment to improving the quality of life in their communities. On a local level, the Bulls are working with West Side schools to implement local TeamUp efforts, rewarding students who create and implement successful community service initiatives.

ACES (Athletes Committed to Educating Students)

New during the 97-98 season, A.C.E.S. is an after-school tutoring/mentoring program for inner-city children who need additional support to reach their full academic potential. A.C.E.S. is a joint venture among Chicago's professional sports teams and is being introduced in four Chicago Public Schools. The program starts with a new fourth grade class every year, and follows each class through high school. Students attend weekly tutoring sessions and bi-monthly classroom sessions led by either an athlete activity leader (from a local professional or college team) or a program coordinator.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

FOOD DRIVE

"Help the Bulls help the homeless" echoes through the concourses of the United Center each December as the Bulls, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Special Events and the Chicago Anti-Hunger Federation, host an annual food drive. Nearly two tons of food are collected each holiday season and distributed to Chicago area food kitchens and shelters.

HOLIDAY KIDS PARTY

Bulls' players turn into elves each December as they invite 200 underprivileged kids to visit the team at the Berto Center, the Bulls' practice facility, for a special holiday celebration. Lunch and souvenirs are provided as well as the opportunity to spend time with Bulls' players. Guests have included children from Marillac House, St. Joseph's Carondelet Child Care Center, St. Barnabas Urban Center, Larkin Center, and Methodist Youth Services.

CHARITY CORPORATE TICKET SECTION PROGRAM

Providing underprivileged children and adults with the opportunity to see a Bulls' game is a goal of both the Bulls' organization and our sponsors. The Bulls Charity Corporate Ticket Section Program enables underprivileged children and adults to experience the excitement of attending a Bulls game. Compliments of the Bulls organization and nine corporate sponsors, up to 250 tickets are offered to local non-profit groups that otherwise would not be able to attend a game.

BULLS/GATORADE SUMMER BASKETBALL CLINICS

Each summer, the Bulls and Gatorade reach out to the city's youth and team up to present a series of ten free clinics for youngsters throughout the Chicagoland area. Two Bulls' players and/or coaches conduct each session and teach the fundamentals of the game. An integral part of each clinic features a message from the players urging the importance of a positive lifestyle. This program annually reaches thousands of kids throughout the Chicagoland area.

CHICAGO BULLS COMMUNITY SERVICES

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

AUCTION/RAFFLE DONATIONS

Throughout the year, contributions of Bulls' memorabilia are given to charity organizations, community fundraisers, school functions and more. Items donated are typically used as auction items, raffle/door prizes, and school incentive prizes. During the '96-'97 season, the Bulls helped raise $640,000 through in-kind donations of autographed memorabilia (this amount only accounts for money raised through autographed item donations; it does not include all of the in-kind donations of tickets and promotional items that are donated to local charities and schools on a daily basis as well).

UNITED CENTER COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND

Being a good neighbor is important to the Bulls and we support many programs in the Near West Side community surrounding the United Center. One of the most ambitious programs is the United Center Community Economic Development Fund which was created in 1995 to stimulate new businesses and create jobs on the West Side. The United Center Joint Venture has set aside $1 million to fund loans to finance projects that will create jobs, thereby directly impacting the quality of life in our community. In addition, in April 1996, the United Center Joint Venture announced a $1.6 million commitment to Malcolm X College in support of its academic and athletic programs.

WHEELCHAIR BULLS

The Chicago Bulls aren't the only game in town - the Bulls help sponsor one of the nation's best wheelchair teams, the Chicago Wheelchair

Bulls. The Wheelchair Bulls devote their time to helping others realize that wheelchair-restricted people can lead active, productive lives. They participate in numerous charity games, perform at Bulls' games and compete against other wheelchair teams on a national and international level. In addition, two years ago the Wheelchair Bulls created a Junior Wheelchair Bulls team.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The visibility afforded to professional athletes gives our players an extraordinary opportunity to reach out and make an impact on the community. Public Service Announcements (PSAs) are one way of accomplishing this. Throughout each season, Bulls' players and coaches help non-profit organizations promote their services by putting together public service announcements for both radio and television.

TEAM MATES/CHICAGO BULLS' WIVES' ORGANIZATION

The Bulls' wives' organization, the Team Mates, comprises wives of front office employees, announcers, players, coaches and basketball personnel. The organization has a philanthropic purpose and holds several fundraising events each year including a holiday ornament sale and in-arena raffle. Last year the Team Mates raised $40,000 and donated funds to Sister House, Children's Memorial Art Therapy Program, West Side

CHICAGO BULLS COMMUNITY SERVICES

Future and several others. In addition to local efforts, the Team Mates also support the NBA's national initiative, NBA Wives Save Lives, to encourage mammography and breast cancer awareness. As part of the NBA Wives Save Lives program, the Team Mates work with Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center each year and help sponsor their annual jazzercise event to support breast cancer research.

BOB LOVE

Former Bulls' player, Bob Love, is the Bulls' Director of Community Relations and is a popular motivational speaker who eloquently describes his personal success in overcoming a speech handicap. Love is made available by the Bulls (free of charge) to deliver his inspirational message at schools and social service agencies throughout the year. Love makes over 450 appearances a year at schools, charity events, clinics, non-profit groups and youth programs.

WISH GRANTING FOUNDATIONS

There are few things as exciting or rewarding as seeing a child meet one of his heroes. The Chicago Bulls work closely with the Make-a-Wish and Starlight Foundations, both national charity organizations that grant the wishes of chronically and terminally ill children. Each year many of these children are brought to both home and away games to have their wishes granted and meet Bulls' players.

FAN SERVICES

BENNY THE BULL/DABULL/LUVABULLS/INCREDIBULLS/PLAYER APPEARANCES

Benny the Bull, Da Bull, the IncrediBulls and the LuvaBulls are available for personal appearances. They frequently attend community parades, walk-a-thons, school assemblies, hospital visits, private parties, company events, golf outings, fundraising benefits and more.

When schedules permit, Bulls' players, coaches and management staff make public appearances for charity benefits, hospital, autograph sessions, speaking engagements and other various events. Front office representatives are also available to speak at career sessions and school programs.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Fans interested in receiving general Bulls' information may send a self addressed, stamped envelope (legal size) to the Bulls Community Services Department to receive a merchandise order form to purchase photos, a pocket schedule and a Blockbuster Video Fan Club application. Fans may also rent Bulls highlight tapes (VHS), free of charge, dating back to the 1985-86 season.

Please note that any and all of these services provided by the Bulls' Community Services Department are subject to availability and require at least eight weeks advance written notice.

We welcome and appreciate your support.

MEDIA INFORMATION

As the Chicago Bulls enter their 32nd season in the league and fourth year in the United Center, the team appreciates the coverage and support from the Chicagoland media. We look forward to assisting you again this season. In an effort to provide a professional work environment, the Bulls have established the following guidelines for the season:

CREDENTIALS:

We will honor all reasonable requests for credentials from recognized newspapers, magazines, radio and television outlets. The only season passes that will be honored at the United Center are Bulls season credentials and NBA season credentials. Each of those credentials will admit the bearer to the United Center, the upstairs press box, press row, press work room and both locker rooms. However, MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE BULLS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING. Please make seating requests at least 48 hours prior to the game. Individual single game press and photo credentials can be secured for accredited media members by calling the Bulls Media Services office no later than 5:00 pm the day before a game (5:00 pm Friday for a weekend game). Single passes can be picked up at Gate 3 1/2 on the northeast corner of the United Center.

Credentials must be visibly worn in the United Center to facilitate proper access to designated areas. In all cases, season and single game passes are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the United Center and the forfeiture of the credential.

PRESS WORK ROOM:

The press work room is located on the service level in the northwest corner of the United Center. A meal will be served in this area prior to every Bulls game. Working media with valid credentials will be allowed into the press work room. The work area is equipped with electrical outlets.

SERVICES:

A pre-game meal will be served in the press work room. Prior to the game, the media will also be provided with game notes and programs. All statistical services including play-by-play, quarter statistics, halftime and final box scores, and postgame quotes will be distributed at press row and in the upstairs press box. Fax service is provided before, during or after the game by Tom Wiscarz.

LOCKER ROOM:

In accordance with NBA policy, the Bulls and visitor's locker rooms will be open to the media up to 45 minutes before the game and 10 minutes after the end of the game. Only working media with a valid credential will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Bulls locker room is located on the north end of the service level, while the visitor's locker room is located adjacent to the press work room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS:

Season passes will be issued to accredited photographers from large circulation Chicagoland daily newspapers. Photographers from other newspapers or magazines wishing to work specific games must request single-game passes. Freelance photographers needing credentials must submit a letter with a specific assignment from a publication.

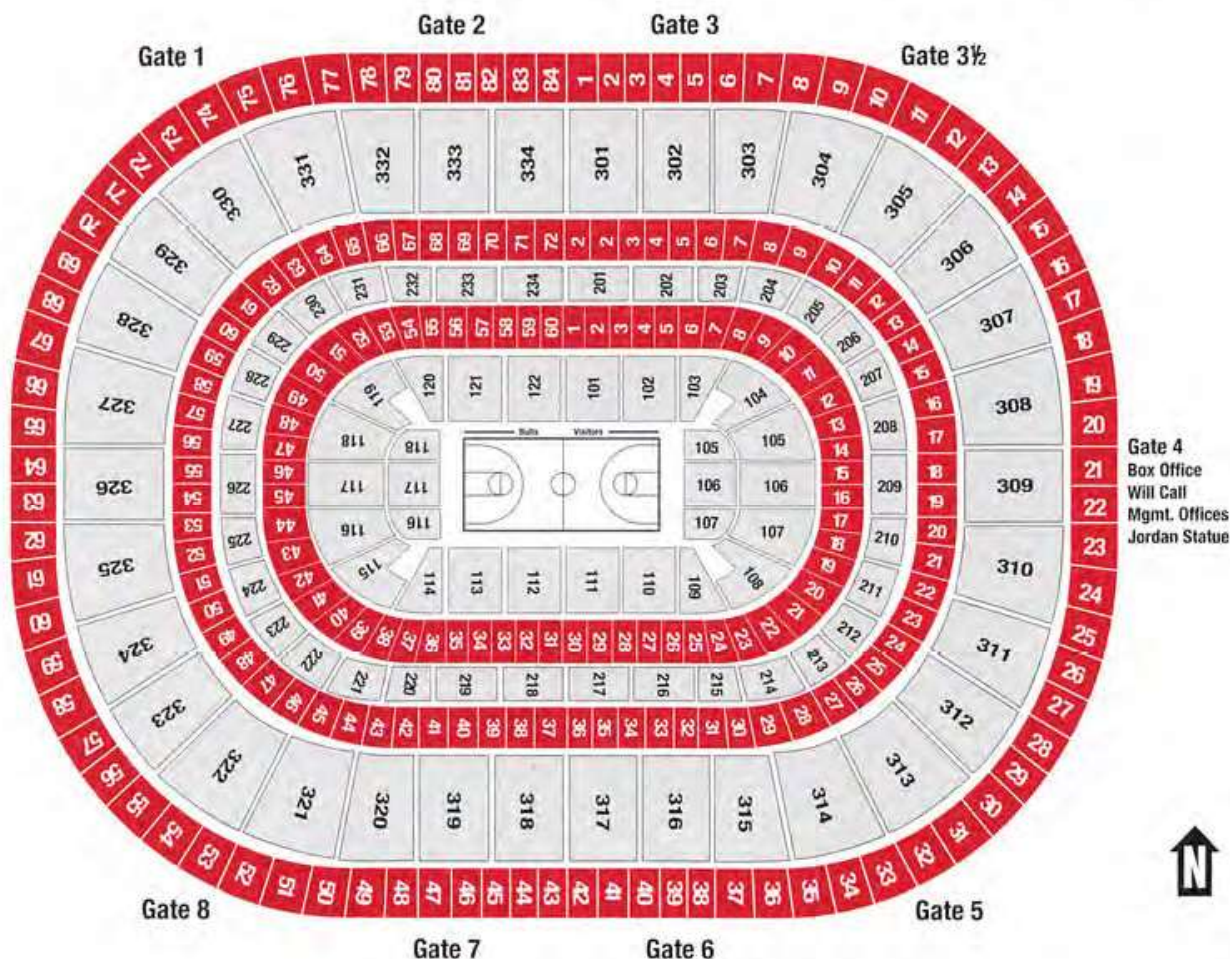

POST-GAME GUESTS:

Please be sure to list THREE choices for radio and television post-game interviews. This will assure a guest in case the first choice is unavailable.

AUTOGRAPHS:

No autographs of players or coaches are allowed.

UNITED CENTER INFORMATION

United Center Building Information

Completed in 1994, the United Center cost $175 million and is 960,000 square feet in size. 3,500 tons of steel were used in the building - enough to build 28 life-sized replicas of the Statue of Liberty. 41,000 cubic yards of concrete were used in the building - enough to equal a five-foot wide sidewalk from the United Center to the Berto Center in Deerfield, Illinois. The scoreboard is as tall as a two-story building (20 feet), weighs nearly as much as 26 cars, and displays 175,000 different lights. The first "public" event was the World Wrestling Federation Summerslam, which was held on August 29, 1994. The building has 1,850 doors, 6,500 parking spaces, eight escalators, nine elevators and 50 bathrooms which are equally distributed.
